

Weather Today

Cloudy, With Probably Rain or Snow.

Silver and Lead Quotations

The silver and lead quotations yesterday were as follows:
 United States silver, 63 1/2 cents; London silver, 63 1/2 cents; United States lead, 63 1/2 cents; London lead, 63 1/2 cents.

GENERAL MARKETS

New York, March 17.—Pig iron, unchanged.
 Copper—Dull; Lake, 11 1/2 to 12.
 Lead—Firm; domestic, 3 1/2 to 3 3/4.
 Tin—Dull; steady; Straits, 12 1/2 to 13.
 Spelter—Quiet.
 Plaster—Firm; domestic, 4 1/2 to 4 3/4.

CITY CIRCULATION

The City Circulation of The Herald has been leased to Mr. J. O. McCracken. Subscribers who do not receive their papers promptly will confer a favor if they make complaint to The Herald circulating room.

All checks for city subscriptions should be made payable to J. O. McCracken, City Circulator.

TOWN TALK

Nearly all of the legislators have returned to their homes.

City Recorder Emery has been confined to his bed with illness for several days past.

Yesterday's clearings were as compared with $182,823 for the same day of last year.

A postage license was issued yesterday to Charles H. Criddle, 23 Morgan City, and Mary Gibson, 35 Salt Lake.

From a letter received from Selma yesterday it was learned that the schools of that place had again been closed on account of the ravages of diphtheria.

Abstracts furnished, titles insured, and interest paid on deposits by Utah Title Insurance and Trust company, 106 Main street.

Utah Commercial and Savings Bank. General banking business; pays 5 per cent on deposits. F. Armstrong, pres.; W. P. Madison, vice-pres.; J. E. Jennings, cashier; 24 1/2 1st South street.

"Coal." Castle Gate lump, $4.50; nut, $4. Winter Quarters, lump, $4.25; nut, $4. Anthracite, all sizes, $3.50. Sacking, 50 cents per ton extra. No extra haul charge within reasonable distance.

P. V. COAL COMPANY, D. J. Sharp, Agent; telephone, 423; 73 South Main street.

Zion's Savings Bank and Trust company pays 5 per cent interest per annum, compounded quarterly. For the convenience of workmen, the bank is open for deposits on Saturdays until 3 p.m. Write for any information desired to Nos. 1, 3 and 5 Main street, Salt Lake City, Utah.

Wilford Woodruff, President George M. Cannon, Cashier

Knocked out in the first round. All other Molasses Candy knocked out by J. G. famous Molasses Nuggies.

Weber Coal Company Sell clean coal at market prices. Full weight guaranteed. W. C. MONTGOMERY, Agent. Telephone 411.

Woman's Exchange. 78 West Second South, serves 3 meals per day. Sunday, breakfast, 10 to 10:30 a. m.; dinner, 4 to 7:30 p. m.

Dr. E. M. Keyser the Dentist's temporary location at 124 Main, next Auerbach's.

The great sale of the Charles Baer store of footwear at 24 Main street is still on. A crowd of people who want to save 100 per cent. We can sell you all if you will call before stores are broken. Do not delay. It is for your benefit. A. B. MILLER, Assignee.

J. Baumgarten, the Tailor, Removed to 123 Main street, first-class men's suitings, $30.

Since the fire, Dr. E. M. Keyser, Dentist, is located temporarily at 124 Main street.

Tour of Palestine. Professor Don C. W. Musser's personally conducted tour of Palestine was not so well attended in the Fifteenth ward the other evening as it should have been. Those who were there received a never to be forgotten treat, for Professor Musser has a way all his own of showing up Palestine and her sacred localities as they are today. From Don to Bersheba he takes his audience over hills and through Dales, past sights sacred to Christian, Moslem and Jew in all countries from east to west, and from pole to pole. The Eleventh ward people will have a chance of hearing him to night at their L. D. S. meeting-house, and they are to be congratulated on their securing Professor Musser for that ward, as we understand he has decided to go on to California.

Apart With God. Apart with God—how beautiful the thought! For cars of earth to win such sweet release, to lay aside the vexing task, half-wrought, And by the green, o'ershadowed path of peace, Seek the white altar that the saints have sought.

Oh, precious is the quiet place of prayer, Where heaven and earth, where God and mortal meet, To that dear spot come neither pain nor care, And all about is like a garden sweet, The flowers whereof shed healing on the feet.

Thine, brother, bring your trials' vexing iron thorn, And God shall pluck it out and give you rest. There bring your sin, and He whose side was torn Shall cleanse your soul to be His palimpsest. Now-written as your spirit is new-born, None is forbid that blest communion— None, The hands that spanned the cruel cross so wide, Thus would they clasp the troubled race, To pray, Lost brother, by love's anguish justified, Come, whoever; behold, you are God's child.

—Advance.

Modern Iconoclasm. Plain Dealer's Teacher—"It is told of Demosthenes that in order to improve his enunciation he would go down to the shore and talk with his mouth filled with pebbles. Who was Demosthenes?" Willie Tall—"Please, mam, he was the inventor of the gas. There are not the only pebbles on the beach."

Only "Good-Morning." It was only a glad "Good morning," As she passed along the way, But it spread the morning's glory Over the living day.

—Zion's Herald.

One Hundred Does One Dollar is peculiar to a true, only of foods Saraparilla. It is economy to buy Food's.

Harsh Treatment. Chicago Record—"Cheer up, old man; smile is on the way."

"That's what saddens me; the people next door who borrowed our snow shovel all winter have moved and taken their lawn mower along."

NEW WORLD'S CHAMPION

How the News Was Received in Salt Lake.

SERVICE OF THE HERALD

THE FIRST PAPER TO ANNOUNCE THE RESULT.

Corbett's Popularity Was on the Wane and There Was Not Much Mourning Over His Defeat—The Betting Not Heavy in Salt Lake—Many Wild Rumors.

NOKED OUT in the fourteenth.

When Corbett's star went down at Carson City yesterday there was much genuine regret among the young Californians who were here, but the regret was not so intense as the exultation of Fitzsimmons' friends over his great victory.

While a majority of the people who take an active interest in the ring picked Jim as the victor, there were many who pinned their faith to Bob; but the betting was not lively at any stage of the game, for the reason that nearly all conceded the men to be evenly matched. Fitzsimmons' superior hitting power offsetting Corbett's speed and science. Then, too, the friends of the champion did not feel disposed to give the odds prevailing in the two men widely cheered anything upon the same terms given in the east and west.

BETS WERE SMALL.

What money was up went at the prevailing odds of 10 to 7, with Fitzsimmons at the short end, of course, but there were no heavy winnings or losses. At the pool room, the betting was fairly lively, but the sums wagered were all small.

The greatest interest was taken in the affair and crowds thronged the streets early in the afternoon for any news from Carson. Not getting it, the people entertained themselves by discussing the merits of the two fighters.

At the tunnel and the saloons, where bulletins were received, great crowds assembled, and when the news finally came, the two men widely cheered anything favorable to their respective sides.

THE HERALD'S SERVICE.

The Herald's early carried off the honors on news from Carson. The paper arranged with the Deseret Telegraph company and sent the bulletins to its patrons all over the state. A big crowd gathered in front of The Herald office and the bulletin boards were watched with intense interest.

The report of Fitzsimmons' victory was ticked off in The Herald's office, and a moment after it was received by Mr. Cogan, the United Press operator, a great cheer from the crowd followed, and the people in front of the Tribune that the fight was over, and a rush was made to The Herald to learn the result.

Thereafter the bulletins were still being received at the other newspaper offices.

As stated before, The Herald was enabled to be the first to announce the result first because of the superiority of the United Press service, and in doing this and sending the news over the state it was enabled to be the first to announce the result.

Of course Corbett is a back number and Fitzsimmons is the ideal of the sporting community, but Jim's popularity has been on the wane for some considerable time. Here in Salt Lake, where he married Ollie Lake, commenced his career as a professional boxer, and he was a favorite with the old-time enthusiasts following him. He did not fill the popular ideal as a champion, and it has been more apparent year by year that after winning the title, he was a disappointment.

Corbett's popularity was waning.

There is scarcely a doubt but that yesterday at this time in every way than when he faced the great John L. nor is there any question that he put up a great fight. He simply met a man who is like himself, an all-round fighter, who is in addition, the equal of Sullivan at punching.

GREAT INTEREST TAKEN.

There was probably just as much interest taken in yesterday's fight as in the one between Corbett and Sullivan, but the latter occurred at night, enabling the entire population to turn out, while yesterday most people were at work.

FITZ IS THE IDOL.

Local sports concede Fitzsimmons' superiority and many are now inclined to think that the responsibility for the failure of the two men to meet before really rests with Corbett, who was not disposed to go up against so dangerous a man as Fitzsimmons until he had squeezed all that he could from the championship.

SAM LEVY HAPPY.

Sam Levy was a happy man when the news came in. He has been backing Fitz, however, since "Lanky Bob" defeated Jack Dempsey, has seen his work in the ring, and was perfectly confident that he would win this time. As soon as the result was announced, Sam put up a huge sign in his window declaring that he was back in the ring, champion of the world.

MANY WILD RUMORS.

Throughout the afternoon, there were wild rumors about Corbett's condition, and The Herald's telephones were kept ringing almost constantly. One rumor was that Corbett was in a critical condition and it was followed by another to the effect that he was dead.

THE SALT LAKE PARTY.

The 49 Salt Laker who went to the fight on Jimmy Fitch's special train returned home this evening. It is reported that one of the party, a well-known club man, made a big winning.

FITZ COMING TO SALT LAKE.

It is understood that Fitz will stop over at Salt Lake on his return to the east. Several days before the fight, his manager secured one of the largest halls in San Francisco and made all arrangements for an exhibition by the world's champion, which indicates that the Fitzsimmons party never had much doubt as to the result.

CONGRATULATIONS FOR FITZ.

Salt Lakers to the number of between 50 and 100, sent telegrams of congratulation to Fitzsimmons last night.

"A crick in the back," a pain under the shoulder-blade, water brash, biliousness and constipation are symptoms of disordered stomach, kidneys, liver and bowels. For all ailments originating in a derangement of these organs take Ayer's Pills.

The Wonder Millinery Company, 26 West First South street, McCormick block, announce their spring reception for Friday and Saturday, March 19th and 20th.

A pretty souvenir will be given to each lady.

DE WOLF & CO., Bankers and Brokers, No. 50 Broadway, New York City.

In deference to the wishes of a large number of our correspondents we have concluded to extend the subscription period to our special wheat syndicate No. 1, April 1, 1897. The syndicate in this condition, the wheat in this special deal is 10 per cent more than guaranteed and remitted on the 8th of each month; profits realized beyond 10 per cent when deal is closed. Margins participate from date of their receipt by us. Deal will be finally closed on Sept. 1, 1897, or earlier at our option. The profit realized from Feb. 8, 1897, when operations were first commenced, to March 8, 1897, show a net profit of 24 per cent. The wheat markets are getting more active daily and we believe that our success will improve with the markets. Subscription books to this deal close April 1, 1897. No customer has ever lost one dollar through us. Call or write for information. Office 304 Atlas block.

THOMAS W. MATTHEWS, Manager.

THE PIONEER JUBILEE

Enthusiastic Meeting of the Commission Last Night.

GOV. WELLS WILL APPOINT FIVE ADDITIONAL COMMISSIONERS.

The Programme for the Celebration Receives Consideration—Interesting Beliefs Coming to Light Every Day—Preparing to Advertise.

THE PIONEER JUBILEE commission now working effectively and zealously in the interests of the state.

With the $15,000 appropriation of the legislature, the commission feels that it has the means to carry out its plan for the jubilee of the pioneer.

A communication was received from Mayor Spencer Ogden, who is encouraging news that he will be able to co-operate fully with the other members of the commission and attend all future meetings.

THE PROGRAMME.

The programme and detailed features of the celebration received careful consideration at the meeting of the commission last night. The production of "The Pride of the Market," the first play produced for the jubilee, will be given at the Salt Lake theatre. It was enacted in 1822, the year of the completion of the Salt Lake trail, and the jubilee commission is to have it presented with the entire original cast, most of whom are still living. The play is a drama of the pioneer days, and the commission is to have it presented with the entire original cast, most of whom are still living.

Several new and interesting relics of pioneer times have been called to the attention of the commission, and these will be given a conspicuous place in the exhibition.

A wagon, the erstwhile property of the late Brigham Young, will be one of the chief attractions. The antique vehicle has a history, and it is to be shown at the jubilee. The wagon was used by the pioneer leader, at the time of the exodus between Nauvoo and Winter Quarters. Later in the same day, it was used by the late Brigham Young, when he was on his way to Salt Lake valley. On a second trip, Brigham Young was taken to the wagon, and he was in the wagon, and again its sturdy wheels combated the rocks and underbrush of the plain, and for 29 years it was used in Zion as a family vehicle. The heritage eventually came to Brigham Young, Jr., and it was taken to Arizona. Here it was loaned to the late Brigham Young, and it was brought to Salt Lake shortly, and will be conspicuous at the forthcoming jubilee.

It is expected that by next Saturday the members of the commission will be appointed, and from that time on attention will be concentrated on the details of the celebration. Up to the present time the commission has been slightly disappointed at the apathetic bearing of the people towards the jubilee, but this is expected to change to enthusiasm before long, and generous contributions from citizens of affluence and merchants are looked for.

PREPARING TO ROOM IT.

In order to thoroughly advertise the jubilee here and elsewhere, the commission has decided on the use of an elaborate letter head, the design for which has already been completed, and the merchants of the state will be called upon to utilize it in their business communications.

A press agent will be brought into the city, and the jubilee will be promoted and advertised from now on. It takes place. The delay in arranging for a press agent was necessitated on account of the uncertainty as to appointments.

No Reason for Existence.

Washington Star: "I must say," said the young woman, "that billiards is a very silly game."

"But you've never tried it," exclaimed the young man.

"I'm sure I shall attend to try it. What excuse is there for it?"

"Why, there's ever so much science."

"Oh, I've heard all about that. But there isn't any costume that goes with it."

A Loose Talker.

Pittsburg Chronicle-Telegraph: Mr. Belvedere—I don't like Spiffins. He has wheels in his head.

Mr. Belvedere—Don't you think that is an expression to be condemned?

Mr. Belvedere—Indeed I don't. I know that Spiffins has wheels in his head.

Mr. Bloomfield—How do you know?

Mr. Bloomfield—By the spokes that come out of his mouth.

HONORING ST. PATRICK

Concert For the Benefit of St. Ann's Orphanage.

MR. MCGURRIN'S ADDRESS

"THE IRISH IN AMERICA" WAS HIS THEME.

A Fine Musical Programme—Ball Given by the Irish-American Wolf Tone Club Last Night—Social Amusements.

T. PATRICK'S day was generally observed by the Irish-Americans of Salt Lake. The concert for the benefit of St. Ann's orphanage given at the Salt Lake theatre last night was well attended, and the programme was musically and financially a success.

The first number on the programme was a harp solo entitled "St. Patrick's Day" by Miss Trumbo, Little Margaret Mulvey then recited "Erin's Flag," stirring up a great round of applause by waving the Irish colors while concluding with "Home, Sweet Home."

Then followed a solo by Master Roy Williams, with accompaniment on the harp by Miss Trumbo and on the piano by Miss Clemon. The trio discoursed well, and the programme was a success.

The programme was a success, and the numbers, principally musical, were arranged artistically.

The first number on the programme was a harp solo entitled "St. Patrick's Day" by Miss Trumbo, Little Margaret Mulvey then recited "Erin's Flag," stirring up a great round of applause by waving the Irish colors while concluding with "Home, Sweet Home."

Then followed a solo by Master Roy Williams, with accompaniment on the harp by Miss Trumbo and on the piano by Miss Clemon. The trio discoursed well, and the programme was a success.

The programme was a success, and the numbers, principally musical, were arranged artistically.

The first number on the programme was a harp solo entitled "St. Patrick's Day" by Miss Trumbo, Little Margaret Mulvey then recited "Erin's Flag," stirring up a great round of applause by waving the Irish colors while concluding with "Home, Sweet Home."

Then followed a solo by Master Roy Williams, with accompaniment on the harp by Miss Trumbo and on the piano by Miss Clemon. The trio discoursed well, and the programme was a success.

The programme was a success, and the numbers, principally musical, were arranged artistically.

The first number on the programme was a harp solo entitled "St. Patrick's Day" by Miss Trumbo, Little Margaret Mulvey then recited "Erin's Flag," stirring up a great round of applause by waving the Irish colors while concluding with "Home, Sweet Home."

Then followed a solo by Master Roy Williams, with accompaniment on the harp by Miss Trumbo and on the piano by Miss Clemon. The trio discoursed well, and the programme was a success.

The programme was a success, and the numbers, principally musical, were arranged artistically.

The first number on the programme was a harp solo entitled "St. Patrick's Day" by Miss Trumbo, Little Margaret Mulvey then recited "Erin's Flag," stirring up a great round of applause by waving the Irish colors while concluding with "Home, Sweet Home."

Then followed a solo by Master Roy Williams, with accompaniment on the harp by Miss Trumbo and on the piano by Miss Clemon. The trio discoursed well, and the programme was a success.

The programme was a success, and the numbers, principally musical, were arranged artistically.

The first number on the programme was a harp solo entitled "St. Patrick's Day" by Miss Trumbo, Little Margaret Mulvey then recited "Erin's Flag," stirring up a great round of applause by waving the Irish colors while concluding with "Home, Sweet Home."

Then followed a solo by Master Roy Williams, with accompaniment on the harp by Miss Trumbo and on the piano by Miss Clemon. The trio discoursed well, and the programme was a success.

The programme was a success, and the numbers, principally musical, were arranged artistically.

The first number on the programme was a harp solo entitled "St. Patrick's Day" by Miss Trumbo, Little Margaret Mulvey then recited "Erin's Flag," stirring up a great round of applause by waving the Irish colors while concluding with "Home, Sweet Home."

Then followed a solo by Master Roy Williams, with accompaniment on the harp by Miss Trumbo and on the piano by Miss Clemon. The trio discoursed well, and the programme was a success.

The programme was a success, and the numbers, principally musical, were arranged artistically.

The first number on the programme was a harp solo entitled "St. Patrick's Day" by Miss Trumbo, Little Margaret Mulvey then recited "Erin's Flag," stirring up a great round of applause by waving the Irish colors while concluding with "Home, Sweet Home."

Then followed a solo by Master Roy Williams, with accompaniment on the harp by Miss Trumbo and on the piano by Miss Clemon. The trio discoursed well, and the programme was a success.

The programme was a success, and the numbers, principally musical, were arranged artistically.

The first number on the programme was a harp solo entitled "St. Patrick's Day" by Miss Trumbo, Little Margaret Mulvey then recited "Erin's Flag," stirring up a great round of applause by waving the Irish colors while concluding with "Home, Sweet Home."

Then followed a solo by Master Roy Williams, with accompaniment on the harp by Miss Trumbo and on the piano by Miss Clemon. The trio discoursed well, and the programme was a success.

The programme was a success, and the numbers, principally musical, were arranged artistically.

The first number on the programme was a harp solo entitled "St. Patrick's Day" by Miss Trumbo, Little Margaret Mulvey then recited "Erin's Flag," stirring up a great round of applause by waving the Irish colors while concluding with "Home, Sweet Home."

Then followed a solo by Master Roy Williams, with accompaniment on the harp by Miss Trumbo and on the piano by Miss Clemon. The trio discoursed well, and the programme was a success.

The programme was a success, and the numbers, principally musical, were arranged artistically.

The first number on the programme was a harp solo entitled "St. Patrick's Day" by Miss Trumbo, Little Margaret Mulvey then recited "Erin's Flag," stirring up a great round of applause by waving the Irish colors while concluding with "Home, Sweet Home."

Then followed a solo by Master Roy Williams, with accompaniment on the harp by Miss Trumbo and on the piano by Miss Clemon. The trio discoursed well, and the programme was a success.

The programme was a success, and the numbers, principally musical, were arranged artistically.

The first number on the programme was a harp solo entitled "St. Patrick's Day" by Miss Trumbo, Little Margaret Mulvey then recited "Erin's Flag," stirring up a great round of applause by waving the Irish colors while concluding with "Home, Sweet Home."

Then followed a solo by Master Roy Williams, with accompaniment on the harp by Miss Trumbo and on the piano by Miss Clemon. The trio discoursed well, and the programme was a success.

The programme was a success, and the numbers, principally musical, were arranged artistically.

The first number on the programme was a harp solo entitled "St. Patrick's Day" by Miss Trumbo, Little Margaret Mulvey then recited "Erin's Flag," stirring up a great round of applause by waving the Irish colors while concluding with "Home, Sweet Home."

Then followed a solo by Master Roy Williams, with accompaniment on the harp by Miss Trumbo and on the piano by Miss Clemon. The trio discoursed well, and the programme was a success.

The programme was a success, and the numbers, principally musical, were arranged artistically.

The first number on the programme was a harp solo entitled "St. Patrick's Day" by Miss Trumbo, Little Margaret Mulvey then recited "Erin's Flag," stirring up a great round of applause by waving the Irish colors while concluding with "Home, Sweet Home."

Then followed a solo by Master Roy Williams, with accompaniment on the harp by Miss Trumbo and on the piano by Miss Clemon. The trio discoursed well, and the programme was a success.

The programme was a success, and the numbers, principally musical, were arranged artistically.

The first number on the programme was a harp solo entitled "St. Patrick's Day" by Miss Trumbo, Little Margaret Mulvey then recited "Erin's Flag," stirring up a great round of applause by waving the Irish colors while concluding with "Home, Sweet Home."

Then followed a solo by Master Roy Williams, with accompaniment on the harp by Miss Trumbo and on the piano by Miss Clemon. The trio discoursed well, and the programme was a success.

The programme was a success, and the numbers, principally musical, were arranged artistically.

The first number on the programme was a harp solo entitled "St. Patrick's Day" by Miss Trumbo, Little Margaret Mulvey then recited "Erin's Flag," stirring up a great round of applause by waving the Irish colors while concluding with "Home, Sweet Home."

Then followed a solo by Master Roy Williams, with accompaniment on the harp by Miss Trumbo and on the piano by Miss Clemon. The trio discoursed well, and the programme was a success.

The programme was a success, and the numbers, principally musical, were arranged artistically.

The first number on the programme was a harp solo entitled "St. Patrick's Day" by Miss Trumbo, Little Margaret Mulvey then recited "Erin's Flag," stirring up a great round of applause by waving the Irish colors while concluding with "Home, Sweet Home."

Then followed a solo by Master Roy Williams, with accompaniment on the harp by Miss Trumbo and on the piano by Miss Clemon. The trio discoursed well, and the programme was a success.

The programme was a success, and the numbers, principally musical, were arranged artistically.

The first number on the programme was a harp solo entitled "St. Patrick's Day" by Miss Trumbo, Little Margaret Mulvey then recited "Erin's Flag," stirring up a great round of applause by waving the Irish colors while concluding with "Home, Sweet Home."

Then followed a solo by Master Roy Williams, with accompaniment on the harp by Miss Trumbo and on the piano by Miss Clemon. The trio discoursed well, and the programme was a success.

The programme was a success, and the numbers, principally musical, were arranged artistically.

The first number on the programme was a harp solo entitled "St. Patrick's Day" by Miss Trumbo, Little Margaret Mulvey then recited "Erin's Flag," stirring up a great round of applause by waving the Irish colors while concluding with "Home, Sweet Home."

Then followed a solo by Master Roy Williams, with accompaniment on the harp by Miss Trumbo and on the piano by Miss Clemon. The trio discoursed well, and the programme was a success.

The programme was a success, and the numbers, principally musical, were arranged artistically.

The first number on the programme was a harp solo entitled "St. Patrick's Day" by Miss Trumbo, Little Margaret Mulvey then recited "Erin's Flag," stirring up a great round of applause by waving the Irish colors while concluding with